

Judaism and Modernity: The Religious Philosophy of David Hartman

A LIVING COVENANT

The Innovative Spirit in Traditional Judaism

This interpretation of Jewish teaching will appeal to all people seeking to understand the relationship between the idea of divine demand and the human response, between religious tradition and modernity. Hartman shows that a life lived in Jewish tradition need not be passive, insulated, or self-effacing, but can be lived in the modern pluralistic world with passion, tolerance, and spontaneity.

Praise for A Living Covenant

Winner of the National Jewish Book Award

"With passion and erudition, David Hartman argues for a version of Judaism that is at once faithful to the tradition and fitted to the requirements of modernity. He writes like Jacob wrestling with the angel, and the result, for the reader, is an exhilarating experience."

— MICHAEL WALZER, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton

"David Hartman's wonderful book should be of interest to everyone who is concerned with the problem of keeping faith with a religious or national tradition while also keeping faith with the ideal of independent thinking, and respecting the pluralism of religious (and national) forms and visions in the world." — HILARY PUTNAM, Cogan University Professor, Harvard University

"Addresses one of the thorniest dilemmas faced by thoughtful Jews today: how to resolve the sharp conflict between the uncompromising, absolute demands of traditional Judaism and the passion for intellectual autonomy and creativity. This deep philosophical treatise—filled with new, nuanced interpretations of Torah and Talmud—reads like a novel that one cannot put down until reaching the very last page."

— JUDITH HAUPTMAN, Rabbi Philip R. Alstat Associate Professor of Talmud, The Jewish Theological Seminary; author, Rereading the Rabbis: A Woman's Voice

"I have learned much from this book, and I appreciate its theological courage and originality."

— RABBI HAROLD M. SCHULWEIS, rabbi, Cong. Valley Beth Shalom, Encino, Calif.; author, For Those Who Can't Believe

"This pioneering reading of traditional Judaism and some of its major contemporary thinkers continues to inform and stimulate in unique fashion. Jews and non-Jews, liberals and traditionalists will see classic Judaism anew in these pages."

— EUGENE B. BOROWITZ, Sigmund L. Falk Distinguished Professor of Education & Jewish Religious Thought, Hebrew Union College—Jewish Institute of Religion
